MOTION TO INTERVENE

Comes Citizen, United States and Tennessee Taxpayer June Griffin in this Motion hereafter referred to as "Intervener," acting in her capacity as pro se litigant requesting this Honorable Court to allow intervention in the above-styled case for the following reasons:

1. Intervener is a person of high moral character, a Christian, Bible teacher and pastor of the American Bible Protestant Church and as such is concerned with the damage done to students subjected to immorality and perversion as would be introduced, promoted and inculcated should the desires of the Plaintiffs be granted. Intervener is in doubt as to whether other defendants would consider this moral issue, rather she believes defenses would be more inclined to satisfy irrelevant rules and technicalities.
2. The use of tax dollars under 42 USC 1988, section of Plaintiffs' Complaint under "Relief," involves an award of attorneys' fees and costs which ultimately emanates from the Taxpayer's Federal involvement through the Department of Education and Federal Income Tax.
